

Jane's Walk Vienna 2018

Free themed tours to help you get to know Vienna better

Jane's Walk Vienna 2018

When: FRI-SUN, May 4-6, 1pm-11pm

Where: Various locations in Vienna

Entry: Free

With 15 different walks planned throughout the weekend, all over the city, all with their own theme, the walks being hosted by Jane's Walk are totally worth checking out. The themes cover everything from homelessness in Vienna, through to history-related topics like Wagners Vienna. There is also walks revealing 'Why Vienna is the best,' which could be interesting. You can check out the full programme, here. Inspired by the Urbanist Jane Jacobs, the idea is to not only see the city in a different light, but also to meet some of the community around you.

Recommended if you like: free stuff, tours with a difference, urban adventures, Art, History, Culture, learning as much about a city as possible, getting out into the sun, learning something new everyday, having some trivial info to bring up at dinner parties
